

(f)J invites you to our
Juvenile Justice Leadership Celebration 2005

Honoring State Senator JARRETT T. BARRIOS for his leadership in addressing racial disparities in the Massachusetts juvenile justice system.

Featuring keynote speaker CHARLES J. OGLETREE, JR., Professor at Harvard Law School, distinguished legal theorist, advocate, and author. His recent book, All Deliberate Speed, will be available for purchase during the evening. Professor Ogletree will be available to sign books at the close of the program.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 2005

5:00 P.M. - 7:00 P.M.

Boston Bar Association—16 Beacon Street, Boston

Wine and hors d'oeuvres • Program begins at 5:45 pm • RSVP now to reserve your tickets • Reply card is enclosed

Citizens for Juvenile Justice | 101 Tremont Street, Suite 1000, Boston, MA 02108 | 617.338.1050 | www.cfjj.org | cfjj@cfjj.org

cfjj invites you to our Juvenile Justice Leadership Celebration 2005

101 Tremont Street,
Suite 1000,
Boston, MA 02108
617.338.1050
www.cfjj.org
cfjj@cfjj.org

Founded in 1994, Citizens for Juvenile Justice is the only independent, non-profit, state-wide organization working exclusively to improve the juvenile justice system in Massachusetts. We advocate, convene, conduct research, and educate the public in order to create a juvenile justice system that is fair and effective for every child, and that ensures the long-term safety of our communities.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Richard Barnum
Krietta Bowens
Susan Dillard
Josh Dohan
Hal Gibber
Edward Kelley
John Larivee
William Lyttle
David Masch
Sandy Matava
Rebecca Pries
Jeanne Schuster
Ken Smith
Edward Stern
Lisa Thurau-Gray
Robert Turillo

ORGANIZATIONAL MEMBERS

Adolescent Consultation Services
Children's League of Massachusetts
Communities for People
Community Resources for Justice
Community Solutions, Inc.
Criminal Justice Institute
Eliot Community Human Services
Justice Resource Institute
Massachusetts Council of Human Service Providers
NFI Massachusetts, Inc.
Northeast Center for Youth and Families
Old Colony Y
Penikese Island School
Robert F. Kennedy Children's Action Corps
South Bay Mental Health Center, Inc.
Spectrum Health Systems, Inc.
The Key Program
YouthBuild Boston
Youth Opportunities Upheld, Inc.

CELEBRATING SPONSORS

Many thanks to the generous sponsors of our Juvenile Justice Leadership Celebration 2005:

Advocating for a Fair and Effective Juvenile Justice System in Massachusetts