Honoring DR. YITZHAK BAKAL, founder and President of North American Family Institute/Northeastern Family Institute for his courageous and visionary leadership devoted to creating community-based alternatives for youth and families.

Featuring keynote speaker BERNARDINE DOHRN, of Northwestern University School of Law, nationally-renowned professor, advocate and author on children's law, juvenile justice and human rights.

Founded in 1994, CITIZENS FOR JUVENILE JUSTICE is the only independent, non-profit, statewide organization working exclusively to improve the juvenile justice system in Massachusetts. CJJ advocates for a fair and effective juvenile justice system in Massachusetts, designed to promote the healthy development of children and youth so they can grow up to live as responsible and productive adults in our communities.
